THE COURSE OF STUDY

Minimum Levels of Learning at the Primary Stage

Class: One

Subject: Language (Eng/Nepali)

A good teacher must know how to arouse the interest of the pupil in the field of study for which he is responsible; he must himself be a master in the field and be in touch with the latest developments in his Subject; he must himself be a fellow traveler in the exciting pursuit of knowledge.

“Our dream for every child, life in all its fullness;
Our prayer for every heart, the will to make it so.”

Teachers have the power to affect a child's life for better or for worse. A child becomes what he experiences.

“The Secret of education lies in respecting the pupil”

A TEACHER’S PRATER

Give me, Divine Master,
a sincere love for my students,
and deep respect for each one’s unique gifts.
Help me to be a faithful and devoted teacher,
with my eyes on the good of those I serve.
May I impart knowledge humbly listen attentively
collaborate willingly,
and seek the lasting good of those I teach.

I accept each student from your hands.
I believe that everyone of them
Is a person of unique worth.
Even when they themselves do not see it.
I know that I have the opportunity to bring light and hope.
A sense of mission and purpose
to may young lives
I believes that you believe in me,
and you stand by me.

I seek your blessing
as I start another day.
May we, above all,
Learn from your guidance
and from the lives of those who know you best.
For this is true learning:
to know life as it should be lived;
to know ourselves as we truly are,
and to hear your voice in every work we learn

May I be quick of these I teach.
show to condemn,
eager to affirm and to forgive.
While I reach ideas and give training in skills,
may my life and my integrity
open minds and hearts to the truth.
May my warm-hearted interest in each one
give them a zest for life and a passion for learning.
Give me the strength to admit my limitations.
The courage to strength to admit my limitations.
The courage to start each day with hope.
And the patience and humour I need in my teaching.

I ask you to bless me and my students,
And out dreams and hopes.
May we learn from the wisdom of the past.
May we learn from life and from one another.

“A True Educator Must

Cultivate a personality

Which manifests kindness, and patience.”
